AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF APPLICATION FOR CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

I, Erik Gudmundsen, being first duly sworn, hereby depose and state as follows:

INTRODUCTION AND AGENT BACKGROUND

1. I am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and have been since 2017. I am assigned to work, and have experience in, cyber and organized crime investigations to include racketeering, major theft, interstate transportation of stolen property, money laundering, computer intrusions, identity theft, wire fraud, financial institution fraud, and sending threats via interstate communications within the Norfolk, Virginia Division. I have received law enforcement training in the investigation of criminal violations of federal law within the jurisdiction of the FBI and have received specialized training in the investigation of computer related crimes. Additionally, I have received training and gained experience in arrest procedures, search warrant applications, the execution of searches and seizures, and various other criminal laws and procedures. I have participated in the execution of search warrants, including those involving the search and seizure of electronic media, computers, and telephonic devices. I have also used historical and prospective cell site data to locate phones of subjects in the course of my investigations.

2. As a federal agent, I am authorized to investigate violations of laws of the United States and to execute warrants issued under the authority of the United States.

3. This affidavit is submitted in support of an application for a criminal complaint and arrest warrant charging TAYLOR BULLARD (hereinafter “BULLARD”) with violations of 18 U.S.C. § 875(c) (making threatening interstate communications).

4. The facts in this affidavit come from my personal observations and information obtained from other investigators and witnesses. This affidavit is intended to show merely that there is sufficient probable cause for the requested warrant and complaint and does not set forth all of my knowledge about this matter. Rather, I have included only the facts that are sufficient to establish probable cause for the issuance of a criminal complaint and the issuance of an arrest warrant for BULLARD for the above-described criminal violations.

PERTINENT FEDERAL CRIMINAL STATUTES

5. 18 U.S.C. § 875(c) provides whoever transmits in interstate or foreign commerce any communication containing any threat to kidnap any person or any threat to injure the person of another, shall be punished.

PROBABLE CAUSE

6. The Norfolk Field Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) is investigating allegations that an individual has made a threat specifically against the executive team of Company A¹, a debt collection agency located in Norfolk, Virginia.

7. The threat was received by Company A on December 12, 2024, via email in Norfolk, Virginia. The email responded to an email that Company A originally sent to BULLARD, urging BULLARD to create a payment plan to resolve his approximate $543 debt with the company. Figure 1, below, documents the email received by Company A, in which BULLARD signed his name after threatening to show up to one of Company A's locations with a machete and gasoline, in order to "do things that are unforgivable" and "make your executive team question their life choices".

¹ For purposes of this affidavit, the true identity of the victims will be protected due to privacy concerns and rights.

Content: This debt is not valid, I paid capital one several times for this same account.

Call me before I show up to one of their locations with a machete and gasoline.

You have ruined my ability to buy a home. I'm 34 with a $100k+ job and it's time I target the people and companies that have ruined my ability to live the life I deserve. I will be coming after your executive team personally.

Please call me before I do things that are unforgivable and will make your executive team question their life choices.

Thank you,
Taylor Bullard

CONCLUSION

22. Based on the information and evidence set forth above, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that TAYLOR BULLARD committed the following offense:

COUNT ONE: On or about December 12, 2024, in the Eastern District of Virginia and elsewhere, BULLARD, transmitted in interstate or foreign commerce a communication containing a threat to injure the person of another, namely, the executive team of Company A.

23. Accordingly, I request that a complaint and arrest warrant be issued charging BULLARD with such offense.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Respectfully submitted,

Erik Gudmundsen
Special Agent
